

Hometeam Heroes Press Release

High tempo, infectious energy, and a bunch of mashups of good old classics and new floor fillers - sing-alongs, 90s riffs, and the latest hits. Bendixen and sons guarantee a good party.

After many years on the road, a solid foundation has been laid when it comes to entertaining at parties. With over 5000 concerts behind him at various festivals, venues, clubs, and parties both at home and abroad, Emil Bendixen has cracked the code on how to put together a party when it comes to entertainment. Audience involvement, the right repertoire, and good energy are the cornerstones of an evening with the band. Since 2019, Emil and his eldest son Sasha have played over 200 concerts as Bendixen and son, but now the band has been expanded with little brother Tyler on bass - So a real family band.

This concept appeals broadly, very broadly - with over 50 songs in 90 minutes, arranged in some cheeky medley/mashups, it never gets boring for anyone: Laban meets Pitbull, Ed Sheeran meets Jason Derulo, and then there are Disco medleys, Rock medleys, ABBA medleys, Danish songs, and much more... In short, a limitless mix of popular music, spiced with close-up comedy.

We are 3 on stage but use technology to achieve the big warm and full modern sound.
